

MONHEGAN ISLAND WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP

with Paul Niemiec, Jr

Oct 5-12, 2024

For beginner/ intermediate level painters.

Class size approximately 10 participants

Workshop Goal: To nurture observational skills and use of the watercolor medium in a joyful process of self-expression. It is the intent to provide the participant with basic tools and approaches to painting in watercolor that encourage self-development. Watercolor is a beautiful, playful, spontaneous medium. Having fun in this workshop is important.

A demonstration on the first morning will be followed by relaxed afternoon painting. We will be painting daily at various beautiful locations around this amazing island. The schedule may change depending upon weather.

SATURDAY- Arrive and check-in at your lodging. Meet up at 5pm at workshop host site for hors d' oeuvres, discussion of upcoming week, and a light supper. Bring a flashlight or head lamp!

Meet daily 9am at host site unless advised of different plans. We will be painting/drawing daily until 4pm., with a break for lunch.

A final closing meeting at 4pm on Friday will cap off our week together.

It is very important to plan on dressing in layers, wearing good walking shoes, and traveling light with equipment.
